THE GREEKS AND THE FRENCH TOGETHER DEMONSTRATED IN PARIS AGAINST THE EU PLANNED POLICY OF DEMOLITION OF NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY AND EACH OF THE NATION STATES OF EU MEMBERS

Press Release by Georgia Bitakou

What happened a few weeks ago in Paris towards the end of March 2018 there occurred well supported demonstrations which should be repeated in Italy, Spain, Portugal and in all other European countries that are under the yoke of bureaucratic non democratic forces of globalisation. These EU forces are hell bent upon abolishing national sovereignty and freedoms.

These are the objects of the policies of the New Order. They include the violation of human rights, of International law, of the Human Rights Charter, Constitutions of member States.

Included also are the selling of companies of strategic importance to buyers who are US multinationals. There then follows: unemployment, the auctioning of private property, the loss of national sovereignty and more: all are issues that threaten European traditions and structures and also crush the freedoms, rights and dignity of European citizens.

Only through democratic sovereign unity, can the People not only face but oppose the catastrophic consequences of the greedy neo-liberal model that has as the vital objective of transferring the wealth so garnered to global oligarchs whilst condemning to increasing economic poverty the remaining population. Poor devastated Greece!

This Paris Demonstration

In the Place de Nation in Paris, representatives of the French Movements, including Sylvain Baron, Karel Vereycken and Lucien Pons, expressed their admiration for Greece while recognizing the treachery that trapped the Greek people by illegal debts. They also expressed their certainty that the same plans will gradually be implemented in their own country, France.

On behalf of the Greek movements, Leonidas Chrysanthopoulos Ambassador ad.h. and member of the provisional political Secretariat of "The Front for a Free Greece" underlined that the public debt of Greece had risen inexorably from 124% to now reach 185%, as a percentage of GNP/GDP. [Gross National or Domestic Product]

Leonidas mentioned the substantial increased death rate in Greece since the bail outs.. It has soared from 60.000 per year before the crisis to more than double at 123.700 p.a.

Leonidas spoke about unemployment which has gone up 6 times. It has soared from 10% to almost 60% in real figures. The result has seen about 800.000 Greeks emigrate.

Greece, although a vassal EU state, cannot even be considered as a colony of Germany, since the colonial powers defended militarily their colonies. The Germans totally fail to defend Greece from Turkey or other outside threats.

The Historical Context.

A Professor of Sociology in Paris and representative of the "Platform of Political Dialogue of the Greeks of the Diaspora", Christina Komi, made a useful historical reference from the years when Kapodistrias was assassinated by foreign powers and Greece was rendered to the Bavarian crown. In this context, she also mentioned the Greek civil war, fomented by foreign powers after WWII, which led Greece to join NATO at the beginning of the 50's.

She further underlined the gradual de-industrialisation of Greece, its destruction of agricultural development and the decrease of incomes that followed after Greece joined the EEC in 1981.

Finally she spoke out against giving the name of Macedonia to Skopje, an act that usurps Greek history and could lead to a territorial dismemberment of Greece. This issue has undermined the territorial integrity of Greece following the falsification of history through this Macedonian issue.

Finally the jurist and journalist Georgia Bitakou, founding member of the resistance Movement for the restoration of Democracy, the Constitution and National Sovereignty [known as "DIEXODOS"] made reference to the unconstitutionality of the EU loan agreements with Greece, the freezing of Democracy, which was essentially forfeited and made ineffective when the result of the Greek 2015 referendum was ignored.

Handing over Greek national sovereignty to the German and other EU lenders with its disastrous results has led to genocide of the Greek Nation and all its peoples.

It has also undermined its territorial integrity by the questioning of the Lausanne Treaty attempted by Tayip Erdogan . Turkey has violated International law by ramming a Greek naval boat, by blocking and preventing an Italian oil rig from exploring for oil in the exclusive economic zone of Cyprus and by ambushing two Greek military personnel who illegally have been arrested and are now prisoners in the high security prisons of Adrianoupolis (Edirne).

Georgia Bitakou underlined the facts that the submissive governments in Greece of the last ten years which functioned exclusively as EU puppets of the New World Order were to blame.

Georgia Bitakou closed her speech by reciting stanzas of the inspirer of the Greek War of Independence, Rigas Belestinlis, from the patriotic hymn "Thourios" and quoting the French philosopher Albert Camus who said "the only way to surpass the illogical is by revolt".

Refugees into the EU

An appeal to the international community to help the new wave of refugees created by Turkish barbarism was made by the President of the Committee of Solidarity for Afrin of Paris, Alain Nazmi Joseph, who described the horrible conditions under which his 250,000 compatriots are living and that the survivors cannot return to their homes. They are within occupation zones, where warring forces have planted mine fields.

The demonstration ended with the promise that the peoples of France and Greece, two nations of revolution, will unite their forces for the respect of basic humanitarian principles, freedom, sovereignty and the nation state.

March 25, 2018*

* Bitakou launched an appeal to the Greek people on the 13 April 2018 calling for demonstrations in Syntagma Square Athens on the 13 of May for the liberation of the two Greek soldiers jailed in Turkey and for the restoration of democracy in Greece.
