

To The Editor, Sunday Telegraph

2 September 2018

Sir,

Whenever Theresa May tells us that she will be clear on Brexit-related Matters, I have a strong and stable certainty that a deep and special Miasma of obfuscation and wishful thinking is about to descend.

Theresa May's article of 2nd September on the Chequers proposals confirms this.

I am sure we may trust Theresa May completely to continue also to be so consistent in such matters.

Yours faithfully
